CELEBRATING 40 YEARS OF SERVING INDIVIDUALS WHO HAPPEN TO HAVE DISABILITIES

"Am I going to fall off, am I going to fall off?" Those were the words I would hear as Saman Moradi slowly mounted his horse. For two years he slowly rode Sparkle around the arena. When I would ask him to do two point he would say "am I going to fall off". We saw slow progress, it almost seemed like a snail's pace. But, progress was being made.

Saman is just one of our athletes, many of which come to the farm fearful and unsure what to expect. But, horses are gentle animals who are able to sense the emotions of those working with them. Slowly, the horses help our athletes overcome their greatest fears, build confidence and experience success.

This year Saman graduated from High School and was invited to volunteer at our Day Camp. He was a Super Star. He taught children how to groom their ponies, he made a video about grooming horses which was shared on Facebook and, he accompanied children as they rode their ponies. He willingly rode every day.

By the end of the Summer, he independently rode his favorite horse, Maggie, with me on trail rides. This past week he competed his wonderful Maggie at the MD State Fair. There were all kinds of carnival rides going on as Saman and Maggie entered the show arena. I said, "Saman, do you want me to walk with you". He said, "No, I am fine."

I am so proud of him. He sat up on Maggie and put her through her paces. He even negotiated an obstacle course all by himself. Saman is just one of the many miracles we see with the Freedom Hills Therapeutic Riding Program.

I invite you to come out and meet Saman as well as our other athletes who have grown so much through their time with our horses. Your financial support is crucial as it enables us to provide opportunities to athletes like Saman. You can show your support by coming to the Freedom Cup. You can show your support by naming a horse in the Freedom Cup Program. You can show your support by placing an ad in the program or by donating an auction item or food item.

We need your financial support to help individuals like Saman grow mentally, physically and emotionally. May God Bless You for Being a Blessing to Others!

Sincerely,
