CELEBRATING 41 YEARS OF SERVING INDIVIDUALS WHO HAPPEN TO HAVE DISABILITIES

"On It," If you ever hear me say those words at the barn it has come from our wonderful athlete John Steven Bolling. What a treasure he is. He independently rides Calada or Giver around the arena at the walk and trot, he has even been known to canter. When I correct him, he says, "Got It." John Steven started out doing Natural Horsemanship with Nugget. He was so patient and kind to our ornery miniature horse. John Steven learned so much that he very proudly showed some of our Advanced Camp students how to do some Natural Horsemanship with their horses. John Stevens enjoys competing in Special Olympics as well as competing in Jumper Shows here at the farm. His Dad, Bill, is a Military Veteran who also rides with us. It is so nice that horseback riding gives them an activity they can do together. They are also very active Freedom Hills Volunteers. John Stevens enjoys helping with pony rides as well as teaching children to groom the minis.

The Freedom Cup "Night at the Races" will be held Saturday, November 12. Please mark your calendar for a fun night of food, fellowship and betting on race horses as well as a silent auction. All of the proceeds go towards the Freedom Hills TRP Military Veterans program and their families.

Sponsorships, financial donations, donated items naming a race horse are deeply appreciated so we can continue to serve these amazing families who have given so much to serve our country and us individually.

We need your financial support to help individuals like Saman grow mentally, physically and emotionally. May God Bless You for Being a Blessing to Others!

Sincerely,

Renee S. Dixon
